

PREVIEW: PROGRAMME OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON STUTTERING - V EDITION

DAY 1: 24 October h. 9.00 am - 5.30 pm

DAY 2: 25 October h. 9.00 am - 6.30 pm

DAY 3: 26 October h. 9.00 am - 6.00 pm

Each day will include:

- Keynote presentations*
- Poster Session
- Paper Session

*KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS:

Mehdi Bakhtiar:

Advancing Stuttering Treatment with Neuromodulation Methods: Current Applications, Challenges, and Future Directions

Michael Blomgren:

Speech Fluency and Speech Naturalness: Shifting Goals in Stuttering Treatment

Michael P. Boyle:

Self-stigma as a barrier to successful communication in individuals who stutter

Ho Ming Chow/ Shahriar Sheikhabaei:

Neurobiology of stuttering

Kurt Eggers:

Speech disfluencies and stuttering in linguistically diverse populations: aspects to consider

Tricia Hedinger:

Envisioning the Pathway to Swift Integration of Research in Clinical Speech Therapy Practice

Erik S. Jackson:

Factors that drive variability in stuttering

Ross Menzies:

Process-Based Therapy: An innovative approach to the diverse needs of adults who stutter

Sharon Millard:

Working with parents of children who stutter

Martine Vanryckeghem:

How the client's "inside view" can help clinicians fulfill the expectations and needs of people who stutter

Bridget Walsh:

The development of the adverse impact of stuttering on children

Patricia Zebrowski:

Understanding the process of change among teenagers who stutter

